

After School Program Feedback

Table 4a: Percent of Respondents Who Thought Participation in Theatre Classes and the Spring Production Helped* Them in the Following Ways

*Some or A lot (Target = at least 75% of older students and 65% of freshmen will say participation helped them.)	Freshmen n=71	Upperclassmen n=97
Work collaboratively with others	90%	95%
Try new things	85%	96%
Listen actively	84%	89%
See a project through from beginning to end	79%	81%
Learn to value others' viewpoints	71%	78%
Become more confident in front of others	68%	82%
Use an expanded vocabulary	67%	75%
With memorization	53%	78%
Express yourself with words	50%	83%

PLACE an I for Inaccurate or and A for Accurate next to each statement below. (Check back for answers.)

- _____ 1. The afterschool program met its targets with both younger and especially older students.
- _____ 2. Almost all respondents (freshmen and upperclassmen) thought participating in theatre classes helped them work collaboratively with others.
- _____ 3. Almost all older students (96%) and a substantial majority of freshmen (85%) thought theatre classes helped them try new things .

Write your own:

After School Program Feedback

Table 4a: Percent of Respondents Who Thought Participation in Theatre Classes and the Spring Production Helped* Them in the Following Ways

*Some or A lot (Target = at least 75% of older students and 65% of freshmen will say participation helped them.)	Freshmen n=71	Upperclassmen n=97
Work collaboratively with others	90%	95%
Try new things	85%	96%
Listen actively	84%	89%
See a project through from beginning to end	79%	81%
Learn to value others' viewpoints	71%	78%
Become more confident in front of others	68%	82%
Use an expanded vocabulary	67%	75%
With memorization	53%	78%
Express yourself with words	50%	83%

ANSWERS

- I 1. The afterschool program met its targets with both younger and especially older students.
- A 2. Almost all respondents (freshmen and upperclassmen) thought participating in theatre classes helped them work collaboratively with others.
- A 3. Almost all older students (96%) and a substantial majority of freshmen (85%) thought theatre classes helped them try new things .