

Activity: Business Model Statement

First, describe your key programs in terms of their expenses (activities) and revenues. Then, craft a “business model statement” that describes your organization’s mission focus and key financial drivers.

Program	Expenses / Activities	Revenues / Support Sources

Business Model Statement:

Are any of your funding sources at risk at the current time? Are there any expected changes in your organization’s program model?
